

Ataxia UK Medical Advisory Panel

The Medical Advisory panel was set up to provide independent advice on the best clinical practice for people with ataxia, and to aid Ataxia UK in specific issues related to the ataxias and developments in treatment and care, among others. The current members of the panel include the following:

Neurologists

Dr Santosh Mordekar (Sheffield Children's Hospital, Sheffield)

Dr Richard Davenport (Western General, Edinburgh)

Dr Rajith de Silva (Queen's Hospital, Romford)

Dr John Ealing (Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust, Greater Manchester)

Prof Paola Giunti (Ataxia UK accredited Ataxia Centre, NHNN London)

Prof Marios Hadjivassiliou (Ataxia UK accredited Ataxia Centre, Sheffield)

Prof Rita Horvath (University of Cambridge)

Dr Mark Wardle (University Hospital Wales, Cardiff)

Prof Nicholas Wood (Institute of Neurology, London)

Dr Priya Darshni Shanmugarajah (Ataxia UK accredited Ataxia Centre, Sheffield)

Dr Kathryn Brennan (Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow)

Other specialists

Prof Andrea Nemeth (Clinical geneticist, Ataxia Clinic, Oxford)

Emma Foster (Ataxia specialist nurse, Ataxia UK accredited Ataxia Centre, Sheffield)

Suzanne Booth (Ataxia specialist nurse, Ataxia UK accredited Ataxia Centre, NHNN London)

Other members

Professor Barry Hunt (Ataxia UK Trustee, Chair of the Panel)

Dr Harriet Bonney (patient representative)

Ann Truscott (lay member)

Carol McCudden (lay member)